Hold On

Dave Gahan

You keep sending me all these things
I'm learnin' how to smile
You keep sending me all these things
I think I'll stay a whileTried to talk to you in my dream
You looked at me and smiled
Your smile said to me
I'll have to wait a while, I have to wait a whileHold on, you opened my eyes today
Hold on another surpriseYou keep giving me all these things
I see them in your smile
You keep giving me all these things
I think I'll stay a while, I guess I'll stay a whileHold on, you opened my eyes today
Hold on another surpriseHold on, hold on, you opened my eyes
Hold on another surpriseHold on, you opened my eyes today
Hold on another surprise
