

Little Joe

Soundgarden

Little Joe, run for the border
Leave your home, leave your mother and father
Go to where the reptiles roam
On the side of the border that is your home Little Joe, eyes of your lover
Look back on you as you run for cover
Though sticks and fire, sticks and fire
Wont break your bones, it is a lie Little Joe, just like your father
Your eyes will water, your guts will splatter
Though sticks and fire, sticks and fire
Wont break your bones, it is a lie Little Joe, run for the border
Leave your home, leave your mother and father
Go to where the reptiles roam
Theyre waiting for you, little Joe Little Joe, run for the border
Leave your home, leave your mother and father
Go to where the reptiles roam
On the side of the border that is your home Little Joe, just like your father
Your eyes will water, your guts will splatter
Though sticks and fire
Wont break your bones, it is a lie
