

All the Way

Gasoline Heart

Don't care for California
Lonely heartbreaks pave the way
Last June I tried to warn you
Of the West Coast's evil waysDowntown, your friends are drinking
Uptown, those whores are dancing
Somehow I know you're laughing
Maybe it's the thought of meWe go all the way
We go all the way
We go all or we don't go at allYoung girl, don't act so old
Dream big or else I won't wake up
Because there's those who can't
Who is, who goesSeen sunsets spilled just like wine
Kiss your girl and I'll kiss mine
'Cause tonight we'll ride all nightWe go all the way
We go all the way
We go all or we don't go at allWe go all the way
We go all the way
We go all or we don't go at all
We go, hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, heyYoung girl, don't act so old
Dream big or else I won't wake up
Because there's those who can't
Is who goesSinging young girl, don't act so old
Dream big or else I won't, I said wake up
Baby, won't you wake up?I want to wake up
Baby, won't you wake up?
I want to wake up
Baby, won't you wake up?I want to wake up
Baby, won't you wake up?
I want to wake up
Baby, won't you wake up?Why don't you just wake up next to me?
'Cause I'm goneWe go all the way
We go all the way
We go all or we don't go at allWe go all the way
We go all the way
We go all or we don't go at all
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
