

Hard Woman

Angie Aparo

She would love to be free
From her lonesomeness
It's so easy to be
The girl nobody getsMy hard woman to love
But I know she ain't so tough
My hard woman to love
Is like a little girl when we touchShe walks out in the rain
So you won't forget
She's got room to complain
Now that she's soaking wetMy hard woman to love
But I know she ain't so tough
My hard woman to love
Is like a little girl when we touchBring her flowers
Candy canes
Love her for hours
Just don't let the screen door
Slam on your way outMy hard woman to love
But I know she ain't so tough
My hard woman to love
Is like a little girl when we touch
