

Zoom

Tokio Hotel

Is there anybody out there, walking alone?
Is there anybody out there, out in the cold?
One heartbeat, lost in the crowd

Is there anybody shouting what no one can hear?
Is there anybody drowning, pulled down by the fear?
I feel you, don't look away

Zoom into me
Zoom into me
I know you're scared
When you can't breathe, I will be there
Zoom into me

Is there anybody laughing, to kill the pain?
Is there anybody screaming the silence away?
Just open your jaded eyes

Come closer, and closer
When you can't breathe, I will be there
Zoom into me
Zoom into me
Zoom into me
When the world cuts your soul into pieces and you start to bleed
When you can't breathe, I will be there
Zoom into me
