Gone

RADIORADIO

I played along with the charade
There doesn't seem to be a reason to change
I try to fake it but it's always the same,
A part of me is gone.I gave it up, I gave away.
Ran a marathon but it felt like a mazeYou know I think it's funny
You know I think it's funny how you found me here.Say it, speak it to me
Before all of these
Say it, speak to me
All these moments are gone
It's gone.None of us ever escapes.
Pictures keep us in pantomime on the stage.
Ripped out the pieces put 'em back into place,
Still a part of me is gone.You know I think it's funny
You know I think it's funny how you found me hereSay it, speak it to me
Before all of these
Say it, speak to me
All these moments are gone
Its gone.Don't look back, c'mon play me somethin' play me somethin'
Don't hold back, you know I know it when I see true passion!You know I think it's funny
You know I think it's funny how you found me hereSay it, speak it to me
Shout it! Now let me hear you
Scream it make me believe maybe the best part of you is gone!
