

Mr. Medicine (Live At Rock and Pop)

Eliza Doolittle

Oh, Mr Medicine
I'm so happy you came here
You went from 'Every man'
To 'Every man savior' When we all took to Everest
We were lookin' for change, sir
More those who start to open
The cycle has now been broken First drop and you get up
There's a pile of dirty laundry
I know you'll clean it up
You're the man to do it for me I trust your judgment
I like the things you say
It's common sense
I could take three times a day Oh, Mr Medicine
I will take anything
What do you recommend? Oh, Mr Medicine
I need my vitamins
Will I feel better then? Oh, Mr Medicine
I feel so much better
My friend's a pessimist
But you still impress her If you need evidence
Then I'll write you a letter
I'll lick the stamp and post it
Just so that you can notice First drop and you get up
There's a pile of dirty laundry
I know you'll clean it up
You're the man to do it for me And then I saw
That the patient has improved
Calling sick
Has become a lame excuse Oh, Mr Medicine
I will take anything
What do you recommend? Oh, Mr Medicine
I need my vitamins
Will I feel better then? This untidy table's turning
You used the best detergent
Now it's shiny, it's not dirty
And we know that it is working Oh, Mr Medicine
(Oh, Mr Medicine)
Oh, Mr Medicine
(Oh, Mr Medicine) Oh, Mr Medicine

I will take anything
What do you recommend? Oh, Mr Medicine
I need my vitamins
Will I feel better then? Oh, Mr Medicine, oh, Mr Medicine
Oh, Mr Medicine, oh, Mr Medicine
Oh, Mr Medicine, oh, Mr Medicine Oh, Mr Medicine
I will take anything
What do you recommend? Oh, Mr Medicine
I need my vitamins
Will I feel better then?
