

Maybe In Another Life

Madness

Baby where have you been?
Called many times but you're never in
Woo-hoo
I've heard you've been knocking on heaven's door
So I've come to take you home once more
Woo-hoo
Woo-hoo

No more flashing lights
No more falling down
No more tortured nights
Tonight we leave this town
Maybe in another life
Who can say?
Who can tell?
We're just not altogether sure
Maybe in another life
Who can say?
Who can tell?
It's just what I'm now praying for

Poor child, it's just not fair
Wonderful world with your
Evil man gets far away
Poor child, to die another day

Maybe in another life
Who can say?
Who can tell?
But kinder than this
Maybe in another life
Who can say?
Who can tell?
But warmer than this

Maybe in another life
Who can say?
Who can tell?
But kinder than this
Maybe in another life

Who can say?
Who can tell?
But warmer than this
