Blue Eyed Brunette

nickasaur!

Oh hello, What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.Open up, like a door.
Empty rooms, to explore.
Hit the lights, Just right.
For nocturnals it's to bright.
So make it quick, Candle lit.It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, shake your hips.
You amaze me, you blue eyed brunette baby.She wore leotards and leggings.
And a mask for persuading anyone who gets in her way.
'Cause i'm speculating that your speculating,
That you'd like a game of soul chasing.
Ready or not i'm embracing the blueprints that i'm retracing.I hope you discover.
A moment that's oppertune.
By the way we move.Oh hello, What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.Open up, like a door.
Empty rooms, to explore.
Hit the lights, Just right.
For nocturnals it's to bright.
So make it quick, Candle lit.It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, shake your hips.
You amaze me, you blue eyed brunette baby.She likes to sit back, relax, while she lays on the beach.
And drink those drinks with umbrellas as she bathes in the sun.
As she bathes in the sun, she saw me.
Didn't think she'd have the guts to come up to me.She turned around then one step, two.
Then her eyes locked on mine.
But you surprised me, so i said.Oh hello, What's your name?
Where you wanna go?
Don't be ashamed.Open up, like a door.
Empty rooms, to explore.
Hit the lights, Just right.
For nocturnals it's to bright.
So make it quick, Candle lit.It's the way you move.
Snap your fingers, move your legs, shake your hips.
You amaze me, you blue eyed brunette baby.
