Dry County

Bon Jovi

Across the border they turn
Water into wine
Some say it's the devil's blood
They're squeezing from the vine
Some say it's a saviour
In these hard and desperate times
For me it helps me to forget
That we're just born to die
I came here lijke so many did
To find the better life
To find my piece of easy street
To finally be alive
And I know nothing good comes easy
And all good things take some time

I made my bed I'll lie in it
To die in it's the crimeYou can't help but prosper

Where the streets are paved with gold

They say the oil wells ran deeper here

Than anybody's known

I packed up on my wife and kid

And left them back at homeNow there's nothing in this paydirt

The ghosts are all I know

Now the oil's gone

The money's gone

And the jobs are gone

Still we're hangin' onDown in dry county

They're swimming in the sand

Praying for some holy water

To wash the sins from off our hands

Here in dry county

The promise has run dry

Where nobody cries

And no one's getting out of here aliveIn the blessed name of Jesus

I heard a preacher say

That we are God's children

And that he'd be back someday

And I hped that he knew

Something as he drank his cup of wine I didn't have too good of a feeling

As I head out to the night I cursed the sky to open I begged the clouds for rain I prayed to God for water For this burning in my veins It was like my soul's on fire And I had to watch the flames All my dreams went up in ashes And my future blew away Now the oil's gone and the money's gone And the jobs are gone Still we're hangin' onDown in dry countyMen spend their whole lives Waiting praying for their big reward But it seems sometimes The payoff leaves you feeling Like a dirty whore If I could choose the way I'll die Make it by the gun or knife 'Cause the other way there's too much pain Night after night after nightDown in dry county
