Love In A Peaceful World

Level 42

you came from out of nowhere yesterday
well you blew my cool but that's ok!
I guess I couldn't run forever anyway
I knew I'd have to face the truth someday strange after all these years after all my tears
to find you there in front of me when I lost you in the crowd I was so full of doubt but that's not the way it's meant to be
ego and pride
the great divide
I was but I'm not crazy now
don't multiply
the tears we cry
I want love in a peaceful world
I grew up with a small town mentality
yeah, it's a universal frame of mind I was trying to make the changes but I couldn't see (oh, why are we so blind) couldn't see above the bottom line searching for common ground used to bring me down I had better ways to spend my days then I lost you in the crowd
but that's not the way I feel today
the great divide
I was but I'm not faking now
can't be denied
or justified
hold me and stop me shaking now

hey you
you gotta break out you gotta follow through you gotta try to find a way dream on but don't lose the feelings when there's nothing to hold on to you gotta learn to feel your way strange (strange) after all these years after all my fears

to remember things we used to say (strange) when I lost you in the crowd
transmit and receive
you gotta feel to believe wear my heart on my sleeve

I'll never lie or flatter to deceive you
you gotta feel to believe it
you gotta believe
oo-oo-ooh . . .
