

Miracle

Matisyahu

Just livin' in the miracle, candles are my vehicle
Eight nights, gonna shine invincible
No longer be divisible, born through the struggle
Keep on movin' through all this hustle
Head up, heads down through all of the bustle
New York City wanna flex your muscle
Look so down, look so puzzled
Huddle 'round your fire through all the rubble
Bound to stumble and fall
But my strength comes not from man at all
Bound to stumble and fall
But my strength comes not from man at all
Do you believe in miracles
Am I hearing you? Am I seein' you?
Oh eight nights, eight lights and these rites keep me right
And bless me to the highest heights with your miracle
Against all odds drive on till tomorrow
Wipe away your tears and your sorrow
Sunrise in the sky like an arrow
No need to worry, no need to cry
Light up your mind, no longer be blind
Him who searches will find
Leave your problems behind
You will shine like a fire in the sky
What's the reason we're alive
Bound to stumble and fall
But my strength comes not from man at all
Bound to stumble and fall
But my strength comes not from man at all
Do you believe in miracles
Am I hearin' you? Am I seein' you?
Eight nights, eight lights and these rites keep me right
Bless me to the highest heights with your miracle
Eight is the number of infinity
One more than what you know how to be
And this is the light of festivity
When your broken heart yearns to be free
Do you believe in miracles
Am I hearin' you? Am I seein' you?
Eight nights, eight lights and these rites keep me right
Bless me to the highest heights with your miracle
