Emote

James Bernard

When I
I push it away
This is not what you wanted
I keep on pushing away
Without youSometimes I feel, sometimes I don't, this time I'm lost inside
I guess I could have tried
This time I crossed the line
To end this journey you must disengage
And let these dreams subsideA song never leads me,
Only the words I have spoken of
Have meaning
And I will deliver you to those
Free of emotions, take meWhen I
I push it away
This is not what you wanted
I keep on pushing away
Without youSometimes I feel, sometimes I don't, this time I'm lost inside
I guess I could have tried
This time I crossed the line
To end this journey you must disengage
And let these dreams subsideA song never leads me,
Only the words I have spoken of
Have meaning
And I will deliver you to those
Free of emotions, take me
A song never leads me
Only the words I have spoken of
Have meaning
And I will deliver you to those
Free of emotions, take me (take me!)
Don't try!A song never leads me
Only the words I have spoken of
Have meaning
And I will deliver you to those
Free of emotions, take me (take me!)
