

Symmetry

Eddie Logix

Stop this, you're never going to find it
When you complicate, you are left behind but Longing, steals away the night
And steps away from eyes that are always searching
    This time, you can feel his voice
And he's never going to stop until it sinks in deeply
    Falling, consecrated lies
And you're letting go with time, 'cause you're through with keeping
    Is it so real? Never gonna stop till you want it, want it
        Is it so real? Never gonna stop
        'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
        And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
        And we're moving to your heart this time
            Release
        'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
        And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
        And we're moving to your heart this time
            Release
        Crashing, feel the way we move
        Open up your eyes to the things around you
        Haunting, take away the tears
'Cause you know that your heart is so close to beating
    This time, you can feel his voice
    And He's never gonna stop until it sinks in deeply
        Falling, consecrated lies
And you're letting go with time, 'cause you're through with keeping
    Is it so real? Never gonna stop till you want it, want it
        Is it so real? Never gonna stop
        'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
        And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
        And we're moving to your heart this time
            Release
        'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
        And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
        And we're moving to your heart this time
            Release
    Is it so real? Never gonna stop till you want it, want it
    Is it so real? Never gonna stop till you want it, want it
    Is it so real? Never gonna stop till you want it, want it

Is it so real? Never gonna stop
'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
And we're moving to your heart this time
Release
'Cause we're moving with a symmetry
And we're crashing like the waves in the sea
And we're moving to your heart this time
Release
It's so real
You are, you are
