

Hymn To Love

Cyndi Lauper

If the sky should fall into the sea
And the stars fade all around me
For the times that we have known
I will sing a hymn to love We have lived and dreamed, we two alone
In a world that seemed our very own
With its memory ever grateful
Just for you, I'll sing my hymn to love I remember each embrace the smile that lights your face
And my heart begins to sing, your arms and hands secure
Your eyes that said be sure
And my heart begins to sing If one day we had to say goodbye
And our love would fade away and die
In my heart you will remain
I will sing a hymn to love Those who love will live eternally
In the blue, where all is harmony
With my voice raised high to heaven
Just for you, I'll sing a hymn to love, just for you, I'll sing a hymn to love
