

As We Open, So We Close

Orchestral Manoeuvres In the Dark

Have you seen this cold facade?
Concrete hands so scaled and scarred
Did you touch this cruel veneer?
Born of pain and forged in tears Veil of sorrow (sorrow) washed away (away)
Bathed in love (bathed in love), I'm new today
Take me to your (take me to your), your fragile place
I promise I will show you (show you) my real face As we open, so we close
As we open, so we close
As we open, so we close
As we open
So we close, close, close, close
