

Restore Me

Fistful Of Mercy

You dream a lot about yourself
And you dream hard winds upon your friends
 But you wanna kill the beast
 That lives up in your head
 And you wanna kill the beast
That lives to see you deadYou dream a lot about the past
 And you dream that's it's never gonna last
So you wanna give your love to your sister and your friends
And you wanna give your love to the one who's facing the endYou want it all but you've got to give
 You want it all but you've got to forgiveRestore me, restore me now and make me sane
Restore me, restore me now I got to give up your ghostYou make me lonelyYou want it all but you got to give
 You want it all but you got to forgiveYou dream a lot about the past
 And you dream that it's never going to last
