

Captive Honour

Megadeth

Madness comes, and madness goes
An insane place, with insane moves
Battles without, for battles within
Where evil lives and evil rules
Breaking them up, just breaking them in Quickest way out, quickest relief wins
Never disclose, never betray
Cease to speak or cease to breathe
And when you kill a man, you're a murderer
Kill many, and you're a conqueror
Kill them all, oh you're a god
Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, have you reached a verdict?
Yes, we have you honor
We find the defendant guilty on all counts for crimes
Against all humanity
By virtue of the jury's decision and the power vested in me by the state,
I hereby sentence you to be incarcerated with no possibility of parole, for life
Life? whale' ya' mean life? I ain't got a life!
Boy, your soul better belong to Jesus, 'cause your ass belongs to me
Captive honour, ain't no honour
Captive honour, ain't no honour
No time for questions
No time for games
Start kicking ass
And taking down the names
A long shit list
A shorter fuse
He is untouchable
And guarantees you'll lose
Captive honour, ain't no honour
Captive honour, ain't no honour
Inside the bighouse
His nightmare unfolds
Before he got there
His man pussy was sold
Black blanket welcome
This tough guy's now a bitch
Praying for death
It can't be worse than this
Captive honour, ain't no honour
Captive honour, ain't no honour
Captive honour, ain't no honour
