

Alley Cat

He Is Legend

So uninviting
Don't try fighting
Every second you spend howling at the moon
You better stay unspoken
Or just keep choking
You always let the poison get the best of you
In this mouth of madness
You cannot be the only one
You can't swallow your sadness
Until you swallow the sun
Should have told me
It would be that lonely
Should have led me to the water and made me drink
It's appetizing
Just realizing
You're only upon luck until you let it sink
Now you're medication
Just a proclamation
You're only as big as the largest thought you'd think
In this mouth of madness
You cannot be the only one
You can't swallow your sadness
Until you swallow the sun
This will all be (all be) over (over)
Soon (soon) very soon (so soon)
This will all be (all be) over (over)
Soon (soon) so soon (so soon)
This will all be (all be) over (over)
Soon (soon) so soon (so soon)
If you swallow the sun you've gotta' deal with the moon
In this mouth of madness
You cannot be the only one
You can't swallow your sadness
Until you swallow the sun, yeah!
