

Signs

Sean Rowe

There were songs in the trees
There were signs all around me
There was a band playing softly as the day was slowly dying
I put my hand inside
I pulled a green stone from my pocket and I watched it glow
I heard a train go by then I thought of youI saw you in a dream
You were wearing my sorrow
I begged you to stay but it was eternally tomorrow
I put my hand inside
I pulled a green stone from my pocket and I watched it glow
I heard a train go by then I thought of youWake me, take me up from the ashes
And I will fly like I'm supposed to fly
Touch me, tell me
When the sky came down and you left the ground
Why you never said goodbye
I want to live in your house
This is not my room it's just a cold hotel
I want to stay in this dream until I believe
I put my hand inside
I pulled a green stone from my pocket and I watched it glow
I heard a train go by then I thought of youI'm getting older but you keep on living...
Inside my head there is a place for you my friend
