The Earth Is Flat

Ben Gravy

(1,2,3,4)

Verse 1:
Iâ€™ve been a winner,
But not in your eyes,
I felt like a loser,
Most of my life.
At least Iâ€™ve been trying,
Or simply trying to try,
Maybe theyâ€™ll give me a medal,
After I die.

Chorus:
Cause Iâ€™ve been running round in circles,
And jumping over hurdles again,
Been living in a hurtful world
Where weâ€™ll all broken and dead.
This is an anthem for anyone whoâ€™s ever felt dead.
This is a song for anyone whoâ€™s ever called me a friend.

Verse 2:
Iâ€™ll admit Iâ€™ve been crying,
Just Simply to cry.
Maybe theyâ€™ll give me a tissue,
After my tears are dried.
The earth has been flattened,
But just in our heads.

Groovy part:
Maybe Iâ€™ll take a big straw
Shove it into the wall
Blow with all of my heart
And believe until itâ€™s round again.

Verse 3:
My heart has been broken,
But just by my friends.
Maybe Iâ€™ll glue it together
With lemurs and popsicle sticks.

Chorus:
Cause Iâ€™ve been running round in circles
And Jumping over hurdles again.
Been living in a hurtful world
Where weâ€™ll all broken and dead.
This is an anthem for anyone whoâ€™s ever felt dead.
This is a song for anyone whoâ€™s ever called me a friend.

(Guitar break)

Cause Iâ€™ve been running round in circles
And Jumping over hurdles again.
Been living in a hurtful world
Where weâ€™ll all broken and dead.
This is an anthem for anyone whoâ€™s ever felt dead.
This is a song for anyone whoâ€™s ever called me a friend.

Lyrics Submitted by Jago Bouffler

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/