Dodging Bullets (feat. Matisyahu)

Kosha Dillz

reload the clip unload the film negatives ain't developed explode at will what is left to me I know whats right to accept my freedom top of the mountain just like a ski bum how did i make it there ? like a really know... haters want no succes stop here we go again will i ever grow again? when they come for everything you own again all by myself like, do I know my friends?

i wanna have something more than trust in you people heard the rumors like it must be true like i'm the one to be uncomofrtable but if you know me thats a bunch of bull !! actions speak louder than words defend my land from every coward at first off i'm always representing no need to dodge the question i am who i am period.

end of the sentence AHh!

(MATISYAHU HOOK)

shake that spell turn wrong from right now i take my time and i take whats mine king for the people and i stand up right intact with the night
want peace
until its time to fight for my right to reep self for all that strife rise for compassion and i dodge the knife

(MATISYAHU VERSE)

when you're all alone and you cant see straight and you just got home and you been away and it seems like everythig has change everything is strange and the road not straight come quick wth a sound yes you must relay relay like the windchimes deep down in a cave reverberate like the truth cuts through the hate make no mistake we came for one fate cuz i believe we can clean the slate try to choose sides tell me whats at stake

(KOSHA VERSE)

by myself waiting on the bus for one hour voices monotone now its gone louder feel the flame in the crowd from the gun powder if i only has enough power i would still choose holo tip buck flower gas shower of love exhale, got em flipping off that israel
