Missed Call

Kanoba

Heyy baby,
I wanted you right next to me, you were my wife to me
And heyy baby
Baby girl your history, your like the rest of me,
And heyy girl
Your thinkin what this songs about, I'm a help you figure out,That you gotta kno o o o o
That you gotta go o o o o
That's why I tell yaU left me all alone
So wen you call my phone
I won't pick up, your just anotha missed call
I know you wanna talk, but girl I had to walk, somethin is wrong
Your just anotha missed call
Your always on my mind, I mean like all the time, I won't pick up the line
Your just another missed call
U were were my heart, my world, my everything, my girl
It's over now your just another missed callHeyy baby
I thought you were my melody, you were my harmony
And heyy baby
U promised that you'd never leave, you walked away from me
And heyy girl
Skip your apology, and please stop callin meCause you gotta kno o o o o
Cause you gotta go o o o o
That's why I tell yaU left me all alone
So wen you call my phone
I won't pick up, your just anotha missed call
I know you wanna talk, but girl I had to walk, somethin is wrong
Your just anotha missed call
Your always on my mind, I mean like all the time, I won't pick up the line
Your just another missed call
U were were my heart, my world, my everything, my girl
It's over now your just another missed callJust another missed call...
Just another missed call...
Just another missed call...
Just another missed call...U left me all alone
So wen you call my phone
I won't pick up, your just anotha missed call
I know you wanna talk, but girl I had to walk, somethin is wrong
Your just anotha missed call
Your always on my mind, I mean like all the time, I won't pick up the line

Your just another missed call
U were were my heart, my world, my everything, my girl
It's over now your just another missed callU left me all alone
So wen you call my phone
I won't pick up, your just anotha missed call
I know you wanna talk, but girl I had to walk, somethin is wrong
Your just anotha missed call
Your always on my mind, I mean like all the time, I won't pick up the line
Your just another missed call
U were were my heart, my world, my everything, my girl
It's over now your just another missed call
