

Have Gun, Will Travel

The Audition

I was once a young boy, never fled too far from home
Now I've lost my name and misplaced my home
I retreat back to places where I am someone they love
Bright lights serving justice up from above
Everybody thinks they know my name and where I've been
I've got news for you that'll turn your head
I'm not exactly who you think that I've been all along
Shut your fuckin' mouth and sing my song
I always knew I would be the one
To make you believe
In sleeping in castles with no guards
But all the pleasure it brings me
I flee from situations when I know that I've done wrong
But face to face with faith he strings me along
I'll shoot for the moon so long as you raise your arms too
My marksmanship is perfect, my aim is true
Hitting targets marked their range all over mother's glow
Smoking out the world atop my throne
I take the names of victims that I've gunned down on my own
I please with love and ease so I aim for gold
I always knew I would be the one
To make you believe
In sleeping in castles with no guards
But all the pleasure it brings me
I always knew I would be the one
To make you believe
In sleeping in castles with no guards
But all the pleasure it brings me
I always knew I would be the one
To make you believe
In sleeping in castles with no guards
But all the pleasure it brings me
I was once a young boy, never fled too far from home
Now I've lost my name and I'm all alone
