Everybody's Laughing

Alex Lloyd

This house is your own, still living alone
It don't make you sad
But I think it's good to be greenThis summer is gone and spring don't belong
The traces are here for long winter
I miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone, anyone
YeahAssumption is good
Though not likelihood
My feeling is true
I wanna be living with youThe truth, it begins
We're breathing it in with shadows of doubt
In time we will all miss the green
It used to be cleanIf you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone
Anyone, nah nah nah, no
Anyone, anyone
Anyone, yeahIf you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone
Anyone, nah nah nah no
Anyone, anyone
Anyone, yeahSeeing is believing
The feeling is deceiving
You know its the truth
When you find that you cant talkLeaving on this, all into chaos
Seeing is feeling is
Seeing is feeling is you
Feeling is you, woahNah nah nah, noAnyone, anyone
Anyone, yeah
