

Everybody's Laughing

Alex Lloyd

This house is your own, still living alone
It don't make you sad
But I think it's good to be green This summer is gone and spring don't belong
The traces are here for long winter
I miss the green, it used to be clean If you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friend If you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone, anyone
Yeah Assumption is good
Though not likelihood
My feeling is true
I wanna be living with you The truth, it begins
We're breathing it in with shadows of doubt
In time we will all miss the green
It used to be clean If you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friend If you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friend Anyone, anyone
Anyone, nah nah nah, no
Anyone, anyone
Anyone, yeah If you wanna be free
Please don't fall for me
I could be anyone but your friend If you open the door
I'll give a whole lot more
I could be anyone but your friend Anyone, anyone
Anyone, nah nah nah no
Anyone, anyone
Anyone, yeah Seeing is believing
The feeling is deceiving
You know its the truth
When you find that you cant talk Leaving on this, all into chaos
Seeing is feeling is
Seeing is feeling is you
Feeling is you, woah Nah nah nah, no Anyone, anyone
Anyone, yeah
