Everybody's Laughing

Alex Lloyd

This house is your own, still living alone
It don't make you sad

But I think it's good to be greenThis summer is gone and spring don't belong

The traces are here for long winter

I miss the green, it used to be cleanIf you wanna be free

Please don't fall for me

I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door

I'll give a whole lot more

I could be anyone, anyone

YeahAssumption is good

Though not likelihood

My feeling is true

I wanna be living with youThe truth, it begins

We're breathing it in with shadows of doubt

In time we will all miss the green

It used to be cleanIf you wanna be free

Please don't fall for me

I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door

I'll give a whole lot more

I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone

Anyone, nah nah nah, no

Anyone, anyone

Anyone, yeahIf you wanna be free

Please don't fall for me

I could be anyone but your friendIf you open the door

I'll give a whole lot more

I could be anyone but your friendAnyone, anyone

Anyone, nah nah nah no

Anyone, anyone

Anyone, yeahSeeing is believing

The feeling is deceiving

You know its the truth

When you find that you cant talkLeaving on this, all into chaos

Seeing is feeling is

Seeing is feeling is you

Feeling is you, woahNah nah nah, noAnyone, anyone

Anyone, yeah
