

I'm Not Coming Back

Husky

Pour your words out
Come on, I'm not coming back
Draw the curtains. Come on, that old son is back
My hometown has cursed me, lately
Iâ€™m not coming back

Cause the last thing that I noticed
Thereâ€™s that old trick came around
Was this city burning golden
And the sun came shining down
And I said theyâ€™re still in my mind
And screamed â€œGoodbye, farewell!â€• to my hometown.
Iâ€™m not coming back.

Fire engines, come on! Thereâ€™s a race to run.
So, it had been. Come on, thereâ€™s the starting gun
My hometown has cursed me, lately -
Iâ€™m not coming back

Cause the last thing that I noticed
Thereâ€™s that old trick came around
Was this city burning golden
And the sun came shining down
And I said theyâ€™re still in my mind
And screamed â€œGoodbye, farewell!â€• to my hometown.
Iâ€™m not coming back.

Iâ€™m waking fright, with the moon outside
Sleep wonâ€™t come. You donâ€™t really need it
You just canâ€™t tell. You never can, son!
I hope Iâ€™ll breath. Hope so too.

Iâ€™m waking fright, with the moon outside
Sleep wonâ€™t come. You donâ€™t really need it
You just canâ€™t tell. You never can, son!
I hope Iâ€™ll breath. Hope so too.
I hope Iâ€™ll breath. I-I Iâ€™m not coming back.

Cause the last thing that I noticed
Thereâ€™s that old trick came around

Was this city burning golden
And the sun came shinning down
And I said theyâ€™re still in my mind
And screamed â€œGoodbye, farewell!â€• to my hometown.
Iâ€™m not coming back

Iâ€™m not coming back
Iâ€™m not coming back.
