

Acid Rain

Saigon Kick

Rain, rain, acid rain
Don't come back for another day
I wash my face in the sea of blood
I wash my face in the sea of bloodRain, where are you hiding?
Gotta, gotta get away
Get away, get awayI walked on the wings of your mother's schemes
I walked on the water and I floated on streams
Went to the mountain, oh, what did I see?
A [Incomprehensible] castle up on that hillHey, hey, hey, yeah, oh no
Gotta, gotta get away
Get away, get awayRain, rain, acid rain
Don't come back for another day
I wash my face in the sea of blood
I wash my face in the sea of bloodYeah, oh no
Gotta, gotta get away
I'll get away, I'll get awayRain
Gotta, gotta get away
Hey, hey now, no, no, no
Gotta, gotta get away
