Jonesin'

Jazzhole

And I want you and I need to
Cut you and hold you in place as I rip you apart
This blood on my face but loved you so hard
I can't escape I'm crawling inside
You can't erase this night that you died
To blanket the obscure
(I was the victim you can't deny this)
To leave you enraptured
(I was the victim you can't deny this)
To open the obscene
(Blood on my hands as I had to drive this)
Fade to wet dream
(Home)
Watched you die shut up and stay there and bleed
As I open you up and I watch while you scream
I can't get enough of your face in my dreams
I'm raping you blind you can't believe
This night that you died
To blanket the obscure
(I was the victim you can't deny this)
To leave you enraptured
(I was the victim you can't deny this)
To open the obscene
(Blood on my hands as I had to drive this)
Fade to wet dream
(Home)
Far away, so far away, away
So far away, away
So far away, away
So far away, away
[Incomprehensible]Far away, so far away, away
So far away, away, so far away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away
So far away, so far away, away
So far away, so far away, away
So far, so far, so far, so far away
