Revolution

Trading Yesterday

open up my eyes to dreams that should have died I was made for more than this take away my name for I will never be the same I have not begun to live for Eden's suns engulf my eyes bringing my heart to life and I will be a revolution

be a voice beyond these lies if it takes my life
and I will not be lost in silence I will not let darkness hide there's hope beyond my sight

a criminal's reward was all that I lived for until these broken years were healed the shadows of a shattered life only returns tonight

and I will not be lost in silence

for every lie I believed brought me to Him but I have been set free to live again

and I will not be lost in silence
the reason for my life

for I have been set free
to live again
