

Pick 'em Up And Lay 'em Down

Toby Keith

She said the man's goin' home with me
She told the bar she was takin' all bets
You never trust a woman drinkin' whiskey
That lights her own cigarette
I started callin' her baby
Temptation was drivin' me wild
I think the only thing that saved me
It's just not my style
'Cause I'm not the kind of man that goes out just lookin' for a woman
I like the price you pay to keep passion on solid ground
I'm not the kind of man that holds out on a need for nothin'
I'm as lonely as any man around yeah
I just don't like to pick 'em up and lay 'em down, lay 'em down
Pick 'em up and lay 'em down
So we went from bottoms up to coffee cups
A corner booth where the lights got dim
We started talkin' 'bout gettin' real close
About how and about when
It started rainin' harder and harder
I got up and with a thoughtful smile
I said, "Honey, if that ain't thunder and lightnin'
It just ain't worthwhile"
I'm not the kind of man that goes out just lookin' for a woman
I like the price you pay to keep passion on solid ground
I'm not the kind of man that holds out on a need for nothin'
I'm as lonely as any man around, yeah
I just don't like to pick 'em up and lay 'em down
Lay 'em down, down, down, down, down
I turned around and gave her one last smile
I thought about one long kiss
Would that be takin' it too far baby
Something I couldn't resist
I'm not the kind of man that goes out just lookin' for a woman
I like the price you pay to keep passion on solid ground
I'm not the kind of man that holds out on a needs for nothin'
I'm as lonely as any man around, yeah
I just don't like to pick 'em up and lay 'em down, lay 'em down
Pick 'em up and lay 'em down, lay 'em down
If it ain't about thunder and lightnin' it just ain't worthwhile

Lord knows it just ain't my style
Pick 'em up and lay 'em down, down, down, down, down
Pick 'em up and lay 'em down
