Inmate 4859

Sabaton

The dawn of century a boy born by a lake
Resettled from Karelia's plains
Go to a man in exile as the Great War came Unleashed a shadow on his worldWitold, Witold, who knows his name?Inmate in hell or a hero in prison?
Soldier in Auschwitz who knows his name
Locked in a cell, waging war from the prison
Hiding in Auschwitz who hides behind 4859Outside of never came decided to break free
The end of April '43
Joined the Uprising, fight on the streets while hiding his rank
Takes command (all for) serving his country in needWitold, Witold, who knows his name?Inmate in hell or a hero in prison?
Soldier in Auschwitz who knows his name
Locked in a cell, waging war from the prison
Hiding in Auschwitz who hides behind 4859Sent to the prison where the heroes are judged as traitors
Accused of treason by his own
Sentenced by countrymen under pressure of foreign influence
Men he once fought to freeInmate in hell or a hero in prison?
Soldier in Auschwitz we know his name
Locked in a cell, waging war from the prison
Hiding in Auschwitz he hides behind 4859

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/