Red Eyes

Thomas Azier

She could never be closer, And ever closer than tales can tell,
But I can feel, She could never be closer,
And who's the one who cast the spell,
Oh I can't tell,Pieces falling over games you've played,
And even castles could not get away,
Red eyes,
Red eyes,Her lips are around you,
You feel the sweat against your skin,
Oh, the mastering,Pieces falling over games you've played,
And even castles could not get away,
Red eyes,
Red eyes,
