

Will It Be This Way Forever?

The Courteeners

A bicycle shop at the end of the road
A Chinese chippy to ease the load
The lights are low, and life's not fair
What I have is yours to share Victoria Park, after dark
Kissing on the wall trying not to fall
Into your heart, and into your head
Take me somewhere else, take me to your bed Naive, young, and not too clever
Will it be this way forever? Like two students in love, waltzing along
I have been both, but not for very long
Like two drunk dancers, juvenile chancers
One sets the other one off Naive, young, and not too clever
Will it be this way forever? Angel as you go down, I'll let you know tomorrow
Change your plea to guilty and another day we'll borrow A bicycle shop at the end of the road
A Chinese chippy to ease the load
The lights are low, and life's not fair
What I have is yours to share Naive, young, and not too clever
Will it be this way forever? We don't need money, let's get under the covers
Just as long as we've got each other
