So Far Away

Tami Neilson

Every time I think of you, you get a little smaller Sun's gettin' lower and the shadows gettin' taller light gets caught in the treetop branches released to the fire as the tree becomes ashesHills glow gold as the rays of the sun goes High above the water see the clouds sit solo
A wave can dive to the bottom of the ocean
Frozen time and frozen motionSo far away!
So far away!
When I get there it's gonna be a better day
So far away!
So far away!
I'll get there tomorrow if I leave yesterdayBridgeSay goodbye to the family table
Work when you can and sleep when you're able
The prices keeps risin' and the kids are gettin' bolder
Every time I think of you, you get a little older
A little bit softer and round at the shoulderSo far away!
So far away!
When I get there it's gonna be a better day
So far away!
So far away!
I'll get there tomorrow if I leave yesterday
I'll get there tomorrow if I leave yesterday
