

Holding On to Love

Rose Royce

In the loneliness is where I am today
Without you standin' right here by my side
Well I don't blame you
For feeling the way you do
But the love we shared stays on mind
I'm holding on to love
Sweet memories of you
I'm holding on to love There's nothing in this world that I can't do
I cried myself to sleep
I prayed to God my soul to keep
And to bring you home
Doesn't matter who's right or wrong
But the love we shared is oh so strong And now you're gone
And now you're gone
I'm holding on to love
Sweet memories of you
I'm holding on to love
There's nothing in this world that I can't do I'm holding on to love
Sweet memories of you, oh girl
I'm holding on to love
There's nothing in this world that I can't do
