Fallacious

Belial's Bride

Embrace the whore, soiled bride; apostasy! Lawless slut filled with iniquity. Pride infested, murderous adultery. Season of Antichrist Christianity!

The bride is defiled. All the petals have fallen. All who believe her are those she leads to hell. The bride is a harlot, she is arrayed with scarlet; her lips drip with blood and sweet red wine.

Works of faith faith, righteousness; shitty rags. Salt of earth fucking nullified. Judging trees by their fruit: You are thorns. Cited for fucking fallacious faith.

No greater love than this: Than of one who would lay down his life for a friend; his life for his friends.

In this world of pain I walk among the living who are dead.
In this world of pain I walk as one of the living who are dead.

How can you even dare call yourselves his disciples if you consistently fail to love one another?
You can't enter heaven without love!

In this world of pain I walk among the living who are dead.
In this world of pain I walk as one of the living who are dead.

To this world I'm enslaved: I'm judged as one of the living who are dead.
In this world I'm betrayed: I'm damned as one of the living who are dead.

We are being cited For Unlawful Carnal Knowledge....

Love your God with all you life????
Love your neighbor as yourself!!!!
