Gemini

Lost Lander

There is an animal
That finds us in the night
I see its eyes, reflected in the soft light
I see trouble
everywhere I look for youHold my breath
Hold onto your secrets
Safe and sound
I'll keep them in the back for you
I see trouble
Every time I look for youAnd maybe that's a lie
And I
Suppose I'm the crying type
With luck
I will hide myself
Away in you.Don't you think you've seen enough of that?
One by one we share a troubled
Heart.
(x2)Shake it up
Paint it on your lips
Nothing else
Could ever put a stop to this
I see trouble
Every time I look for youAnd maybe that's a lie
And I
Suppose I'm the crying type
With luck
I will hide myself
Away in you.Don't you think you've seen enough of that?
One by one we share a troubled
Heart.
(x2)There
And back again
Oh, you wanted more than what you got(hey, hey, hey)There
And back again
Oh, you wanted more than what you got(ooooooooh)And back again
Oh, you wanted more than what you gotOne by one we share
A troubled
HeartSuppose I'm the crying type
With luck, I will hide myself

Away in youAnd maybe that's a lie
And I
Suppose I'm the crying type
With luck
I will hide myself
Away in you.
