

Someday

Chantal Chamberland

Some Day
I'll travel the world in a private plane go swimming in Jamaica and go dancing in Spain

Some Day
I'll live in a house in New Orleans drive to California
in a golden limousine

||:And then
I think I might just buy You a tiny island or rent Honolulu instead

And then,
when the timing is right, I'll buy You
a shiny diamond
that's is bigger than Your head and we'll wed

But as years go by the house and wifes are lost a long way
so for heavens' sake
don't make me wait
'til some day:||

I'll find a part of gold that the rainbow sent Darling, I would give You the world, if You'd love me 'til then
if You'd love me 'til then won't You love me 'til some day if You'd love me 'til then...
