

Devil Man

100 Monkeys

Oh boy, I tell you so
Devil man coming for your soul
He's got a big shiny car with wheels that roll
You straight down to the underground
Oh boy, I tell you so
Devil man coming for your soul
He's got a big shiny smile with teeth of gold
Teeth are meant for eating you
Sheep, sheep sleep
While the devil gnashes his teeth
Sheep, sheep sleep
While the devil eats
Devil man got a real nice grin
Shiny watch a shimmering
But ever from the moment that he lets you in
He'll be a drinking up on the blood of your sins
Old, so old
Is the story that you've been told
Old, so old
Is the story that you've been told
Give you all the money and the girls that you please
You'll spend eternity on your knees
He'll come and take you while you're asleep
This thieving trickster is bastardly
Oh boy, I tell you so
Devil man coming for your soul
But you still gonna give those dice a roll
And hope to God that he takes you slow
Fool, you fool
He's got a hold on you
Fool, you fool
Devil's got a hold on you
