We Stand Alone

Ultravox

The words played on around our heads
Perhaps we went too far
We'll soldier on until the end, againThis clutching hand around my hand
So pitiful and frail
Makes bleeding hearts begin to beat againWe stand in a different light
That's cast upon, this gigolo and gigolette
We stand with a different frame around us now
But when we talk, we talk in time
We'll shine with profiles so strong and so clear
And when we move, we move in time
Won't fade like pictures that come back againYour propaganda touched my soul
Those thin and cherished words
A willing victim for the kill againWe stand in a different light
That's cast upon, this gigolo and gigolette
We stand with a different frame around us nowAnd when we talk, we talk in time
We shine with profiles so strong and so clear
And when we move, we move in time
Won't fade like pictures that come back againWe stand in a different light
That's cast upon, this gigolo and gigolette
We stand with a different frame around us now
But when we talk, we talk in time
We shine with profiles so strong and so clear
And when we move, we move in time
Won't fade like pictures that come back again
