Silly Habits

Cy Coleman

Well, I'm still in love
Though I don't care to let you know
There's something there honey it doesn't show
But when you're near silly habits mean a lotI've been alone now for quite some time, it's true
But every night when I come home, I'm coming home to you
I listen for your footsteps
Sometimes I even knock, silly habits mean a lotI've been parading and I've led a lot astray
Why bother waiting? Honey you can have it all today
You may remember I like my coffee hot
Silly habits mean a lotSo you go your way and I'll go mine
Maybe someday our paths will re-entwine
I used to say, "I love you" one day I forgot
Silly habits mean a lot, silly habits mean a lot
