

Heaven Tonight

Yngwie Malmsteen

This feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonight
Lost in a dream in the arms of the night
Two lonely prisoners of our own device
Don't let me go, hold on together
You wanna know if love can be real I wanna take everything I can steal Love on the line, it's now or never
Why can't the night last forever?
This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonight
Run through the night down streets of desire
Burning my soul, my heart's on fire
Give up the fight, it's sweet surrender
With trembling hands we reach for it all
Two desperate hearts waiting to fall I need you now, now more than ever Why can't the night last forever?
This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This could be Paradise,
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This feels like Paradise
I see the world in your eyes
If we just hold on tight
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonight
