

The Spoils (feat. Hope Sandoval)

Massive Attack

I got that feeling, that bad feeling that you don't know
I don't even know her but I hope that she comforts you tonight Nobody here that keeps you in the shade and ever owned you
Some sentimental tears or someone else's girl that drips away But I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you the same
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away I got that feeling, that bad feeling that you don't know
I don't even know her but I hope that she comforts you tonight And I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you this way
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away Away And I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you this way
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you But I somehow slowly love you
And wanna keep you the same
Well, I somehow slowly know you
And wanna keep you away
