Spyra

Morning comes and I'm up on time again
Upon getting up and I'm down on what I got up for Boring, dumb, and fine
It's been a long time my friend
You haven't changed, neither have I
So why you want to bring that up

I feel it started at the source

What is it that makes you cry and why?

When you see a documentary and know the outcome
And that it's fucked
You still hope Hitler will blow up
And that Kennedy will duck

I feel it started at the source
