

I'm Not a Loser

Descendents

Think that I'm a loser
'Cause now my pants are too low
    Think that I'm a slob
    'Cause I got holes in my shoes
        Think my cock is like
        Just like my dirty shirt
        Well you can fuck off
    'Cause I'm working sixty a week
    You think that life is really tough
        When your daddy won't buy
            You a brand new car
        Take a girl out she won't fuck you
        You just brought her a gram of coke
        Spend all your money on shitty drugs
    I'm not a loser! That's right,
        I'm not a loser! (repeat)
        Cruise down the boulevard
    Wasting Mommy's gas while you're
        Looking for kicks on Friday night
        You're only goal in life
            Is to smoke a joint
        And decide how you're gonna get
            Laid tonight
    You are a fucking son-of-a-bitch
    You arrogant assholes
        Your pants are too tight
        You fucking homos
        You suck, Mr. Buttfuck
        You don't belong here
        No away you fucking gay
        I'm not a loser!
