

No Smoke Without a Fire

Bad Company

Ooh, youre like a book with a page torn out
You can turn from a whisper to a shout, ooh yeah
You come running just as fast as you can
Into the arms of another man, yeah But you can do what you wanna do now
Tell me what you wanna say
You can take what you wanna take
Babe, take it all away Oh, theres no smoke without a fire and theres no heat without a flame
Oh, theres no love without desire but I wont play your games
Ooh, youve got the looks that can turn a head
Youve got a turn that can leave a man dead, ooh yeah You keep tellin me our love is alright, you disappear
You dont come home all night, just tell me what
You wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
Its your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know Oh, theres no smoke without a fire and theres no heat without a flame
Oh, theres no love without desire but I wont play your games
Ooh, youve got the looks that can turn a head
Youve got a turn that can leave a man dead, ooh yeah You keep tellin me our love is alright, you disappear
You dont come home all night, just tell me what
You wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
Its your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know Please dont ask me why, 'cause I cant quite explain
Im like a moth to your flame, yeah, just tell me
What you wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
Its your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know, yeah Oh, theres no smoke without a fire and theres no heat without a flame
Oh, theres no love without desire but I wont play your games
Ooh, youve got the looks that can turn a head
Youve got a turn that can leave a man dead, ooh yeah You keep tellin me our love is alright, you disappear
You dont come home all night, just tell me what
You wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
Its your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know
Lets talk about it Oh, theres no smoke without a fire and theres no heat without a flame
Oh, theres no love without desire but I wont play your games
Ooh, youve got the looks that can turn a head
Youve got a turn that can leave a man dead, ooh yeah You keep tellin me our love is alright, you disappear
You dont come home all night, just tell me what
You wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
Its your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know
