Instincts and instances seductions defenseless awareness of questioning but we're still testing Here we go, you know bonobo style
all from the same dirt
one global child
one common urge to go
pogo wild
bonobo style Run wild!
that's what we do
we take what we want we'll jump inside of you knock it out the socket let the light shine through freedom in our feeding time nights at the zoo
from our bites to bruises orgies and twosomes cock the hammer
and let the load go
a quick bang,
a broken bottle of soco up against the wall panfunktual bonobos Here we go, you know bonobo style
all from the same part
one global child
pogo wild
bonobo style Look at this place see how it's changed I fade away into this rain i'm like anyone, anyone Look at you now you're still the same I bleed away into this rain you're like anyone, anyone
