

Hang Yourself In Shame

Buried Alive

hang yourself in shame, the verdict falls on you.Ive heard you're cries of revolt and rage i believed and fought for life and change Material lust, and material gains dragged you away
Now you choke on every fucking word you say Every word you say
And I will never , ever fucking be like you Can you live with yourself. Shallow glass

Can you live with yourself. collapsing pastYou're the one that i despise.Now hang yourself in shame.
